You know when you're doing something around the house that doesn't take that much thought and your mind just wanders aimlessly? Huh, maybe not, could just be me! Ha! Anyway, I was tilling the garden earlier and my mind was doing that and I thought to myself, I love this smell the smell of manure being tilled in the garden. Smells like Victory!!! What do you think? You think I've heard that in a movie somewhere? Oh what the heck, I need to quit rambling and get on with this letter. HAPPY SPRINGTIME!!!
